CELEBRATING
OVER 70 YEARS
of ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE!

The Scottish Universities' International Summer School (SUISS) was founded as a non-profit organisation by Professor David Daiches in 1947. In the spirit of the Edinburgh International Festival, SUISS brings together students and academics who, irrespective of their national, religious, cultural or gender differences, share a love of literature and the arts. SUISS is affiliated with seven prestigious universities: The University of Aberdeen, The University of Dundee, The University of Edinburgh, The University of Glasgow, The Open University in Scotland, The University of St Andrews, and The University of Strathclyde.

Each summer we offer three courses in Text and Context: British and Irish Literature from 1900 to the Present, one course in Creative Writing, and one course in Contemporary British and Irish Theatre and Performance.

SUISS is based at The University of Edinburgh, which offers our students excellent educational and accommodation facilities, the opportunity to enjoy the beautiful capital city of Edinburgh, the world's first UNESCO City of Literature, and to explore cultural and historical sites across Scotland.

"The most wonderful thing about SUISS was the ability to learn from students, lecturers and tutors from all over the world. This school reinforces the idea, in a time when discourse is in peril, that our ability to talk and learn from people all over the world is a privilege, and that our humanity unites, not separates us"

TEXT & CONTEXT PROGRAMME

The Text and Context programme provides comprehensive, interdisciplinary courses that examine literature from Britain and Ireland in the context of the key societal and cultural developments during the twentieth and the twenty-first centuries. The dynamic and diverse characteristics of more than a hundred years of English, Irish, and Scottish texts are studied in conjunction with recent developments in literary theory.

Course 1 : Modernism	6 – 18 July 2020
Course 2 : Contemporary Literature	20 July – 1 August 2020

The Modernism module examines work by, among others, T.S. Eliot, Ford Madox Ford, Virginia Woolf and Jean Rhys and is designed to address the needs of students of all levels who wish to focus on Modernist aesthetics and explore in more detail this historical and cultural period. Lectures are complimented by visits to museums, libraries and other cultural excursions!

The Contemporary Literature course covers British and Irish Literature since 1990. Texts include notable works by Ali Smith, Jeanette Winterson and David Greig, as well as the graphic novel and contemporary poetry. Activities include a Ceilidh, various cultural excursions, and a formal evening at the beautiful Playfair Library.

The reading list includes poetry by Hugh MacDiarmid, Liz Lochhead and Edwin Morgan, plays by John McGrath and Gregory Burke, and fiction by Lewis Grassie Gibbon, Muriel Spark and Alasdair Gray. This exciting course takes place during the Edinburgh festival season, and includes a performance at the Edinburgh International Festival.

THE CITY: EDINBURGH

Edinburgh was designated as the first UNESCO World City of Literature and is home to highly acclaimed authors such as JK Rowling, Ian Rankin, Irvine Welsh and Alexander McCall Smith to name just a few.

Around 4 million people visit Edinburgh every year, many of them for the Edinburgh International Book Festival in August – the largest public celebration of the written word in the world – but many to explore the literary city and all it has to offer the book lover.

SUISS coincides with the many Edinburgh Festivals, including the Military Tattoo, the Edinburgh International Festival and Fringe Festival against the glorious backdrop of the extinct volcanoes of Arthur's Seat and Edinburgh Castle.

Edinburgh is also an acclaimed centre of learning. The National Library of Scotland is a copyright library, and holds a copy of every book published in the United Kingdom. One of the largest and finest collections in the British Isles, the NLS provides outstanding facilities for research in all fields. The resources of the NLS are complemented by The University of Edinburgh Library, the extensive collections of which are designed to meet the needs of both undergraduate and postgraduate students.

Application

SUISS welcomes undergraduates, postgraduates, teachers, lecturers and professionals from around the world and, in 2019, hosted students from 40 different countries. In addition to undergraduate students, SUISS has also been valuable for postgraduates and teachers, who often make use of The National Library of Scotland's and The University of Edinburgh's extensive library resources for their own research.

To secure a place on one or more of our courses, and to guarantee accommodation, we advise you to apply as early as possible. Please visit our website at www.suiss.ed.ac.uk/application/

You can register for all SUISS courses and book accommodation in Edinburgh by downloading the relevant application form. Please note that applicants are required to make a £100 deposit at the time of submitting an application form (scholarship applicants exempt).

Application Deadline: Monday, April 27th 2020

THE READING LIST

Each course is assigned texts that form the basis of the academic work of the Text and Context, Creative Writing and Theatre & Performance courses. Because the SUISS programme is intensive, it is highly recommended that students read the set texts, especially the prose and drama, prior to their arrival at SUISS. Please note that the Reading List is available on the SUISS website.

ACADEMIC CREDIT

Credit is available to, although not compulsory for, all students attending any of these courses. SUISS courses are accredited through the University of Edinburgh degree credit scheme (SCOTCAT) and recognised by universities throughout the world.

Those seeking credit will receive a transcript from the University of Edinburgh that details contact hours, an assessment of their contribution to seminar discussions, grades achieved, and private study hours. Please note that credit can be sought at undergraduate and postgraduate levels.
